VOL. XVIII] TUESDAY, MARCH 10 1818. [No. 5170.

For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of blood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric'l affection	Relaxations, etc.
Inward weaknesses and debility

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

PROVIDENCE....NO. IV.

"How great that pow'r whose providential care
Thro' these bright orbs' dark centres darts a ray!

Enchanted with the pleasing philosophy of the psalmist, I own that I am forced to confess my decided preference for his writings, and to hazard the opinion that, estimated by the intrinsic beauties which they possess as a production merely of secular learning, no one can value them too high. They are flattering to his genius, and a proud memorial of his intellectual endowments.

Let any unprejudiced person—any one but an uncandid infidel—read the first six verses of his XIX Psalm, and I am convinced he will be compelled to admire and admit the superior inspiration of the mind that framed that psalm to any thing which he can find among the productions of the ancients of the same antiquity, and on the same subject. Their astrologers and star gazers compared with the heavenly minded king of Israel—their vain superstitions with his enlightened observations on the heavens, by contrasting the darkness of heathenism with the light of Israel, will only make his superiority appear more conspicuous, and cast a brighter lustre around his writings, his philosophy, and his religion.

Moses is no less admirable as a philosopher than as a law giver and a prophet. And what greatly contributes to David's celebrity is, that he treads in the footsteps of this distinguished personage in the holy scriptures, and follows in his meditations on the heavens in his psalms—the history given of their creation by him in Genesis. He falls in with the Patriarchs in their belief almost as old as the world itself, which was handed down by them in a line of unbroken succession to Moses, that, in the beginning, God made two great lights:—the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night—he made the stars also.

The lights of the firmament, agreeable to the sacred text, were the first things created in the order of creation and point of time; and it must be a source of infinite pleasure to the followers of Christ to be told *that he was the efficient principle in the cause of creation, and the creative energies of the word were first employed in commanding the light to shine out of darkness, in the creation of the moon and the stars, and in seating in the heavens a vivid emblem of the triune Jehovah.

We may consider the phenomena of the heavens as his most convincing appeal to the senses of his creatures for the demonstration of his being—yea, if they continued dead to this appeal, and the whole world were to turn atheist, the sun, the moon and the stars would publish viva voce, the divine origin of their creation, and own the almighty power and infinite wisdom of Him who hung them in the firmament.

Man is so constructed that God, in the present economy of things, can only reveal himself to him through the medium of his senses. These are gross and material. He is a spiritual being. What, then, abstractedly from his works, we ask, can we know of a spirit who is without a form and without parts, eternal in his existence and every where present? This is the great God who speaks in revelation to his creatures—"who rules on high, and thunders when he please."—And it is plain, if taken from his works, we can know nothing of him; but that we shall be totally incapacitated from forming a single conception of his being, and constrained to cry out with the poet, already lost in the boundless ocean of his Godhead,

"I'm quite out at sea, nor see the shore."

It is higher than heaven, says astonished Job; what can we know; deeper than hell, what can we do?

It is only from the impression which surrounding things make upon the mind through the medium of the senses—say of trees which in spring are crowned in foliage, and in autumn stripped of their verdure; of winds which are now sleeping in calm and next blowing in a tempest; of the stars which at night are seen twinkling in the heavens and at day disappear; of the succession of plants and animals: in fine, of the material universe, and of ourselves, amidst them all, the profoundest wonder, that we are paralyzed with the overwhelming conviction of a first cause; and, in his works, the untutored Indian "sees God in clouds, and hears him in the wind."

And amongst the variety of his works, what speaks a bolder language than the phenomena of the heavens? What is louder in its appeal to the senses than the sun? the moon? or a star? O, say Christian, shall we not exclaim, wondering and adoring,

"How great that pow'r whose providential care
Thro' these bright orbs' dark centres darts a ray!"

A ray that, falling from Him, the "father of light," conducts us from star to star, and through the milky way or galaxy of heaven, "from nature up to nature's God?" Yes—no one can resist—none can refuse to follow its resplendent direction. The light of the stars falling with a captivating power upon the senses, irresistibly leads the mind to the contemplation of the glorious fountain of light from whence it originated. Ask the infidel if he is proof against this?—And next, transported at a great height with the psalmist, we find ourselves rivetted in pleasing astonishment, exclaiming, in his words, There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard!

Alexandria, March 10.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Saturday, March 7, 1818—evening.

I have barely time to inform you in addition to what I wrote to you this morning, that the debate on internal improvement was resumed this day and carried on with considerable spirit. The arguments against the measure were many, but those on which the greatest stress was laid were, in the first place, that the constitution has given to congress no power or jurisdiction over the soil of the states—That the power of establishing post offices, given by the constitution, was merely fixing what roads should be post roads—That it could not rationally be supposed that a power was given to the general government to make at will any roads they thought proper in all parts of the Union, as that would involve a right to infringe upon the property of individuals, and would also imply a right in government, which could not be contended for, to make turnpikes in the several states—to erect gates and say that they should not be passed without paying toll, and to prescribe what kind of wheel carriages should pass it.

On the other hand it was contended, as if the opposition to the improvements proposed arose from an invidious averseness to the prosperity of the western state, that the western section of the Union has as good a right as any other to participate in the benefits of the treasury. Mr. Clay, who took up this point in his usual bold and decided manner, asked if gentlemen thought that the whole treasury was to be lavished upon the Atlantic States, and because the western country was not washed by tide water, whether it was to reap no benefit at all from the common purse of the nation—this led him to the subject of commerce, upon which he expatiated with no great seeming partiality, and which he described as decked out in rich apparel, while the sober matron, agriculture, could scarcely get a gown of common Virginia cloth. He gave a glowing account of the natural opulence of the western country, and said that the great object of these plans of internal improvement was to facilitate the business of government and to strengthen the arm of the Union.

The mail closes in Georgetown early in the morning, so that if I was disposed to go to any great length I should not have time.—At all events it is not necessary—as we shall have enough of it, the probability being that the discussions of the subject will consume the whole of next week. At a late hour the committee rose, reported progress and obtained leave to sit again. On Monday, therefore, the subject will be resumed.

ACCIDENT.

On Friday afternoon last, Messrs. Jonathan C. May, Theodore Meade, and Simon Dearborn, (the latter formerly of Portland, Maine) left the wharf in a small row boat and crossed to the opposite shore of Maryland for the purpose of fowling. Having descended the river about two miles, they at length found a favorable opportunity for shooting, when Mr Meade fired: Mr. Dearborn being ready at the same time, also fired, when his gun burst directly at the breech, and the contents passed through the part of his left hand between the formation of the thumb and forefinger, tearing the thumb nearly from the wrist, and lacerating the flesh and bones in a shocking manner. The accident occurred about half past 6 o'clock, and two hours afterwards the wound was dressed by Dr. Washington, who, we understand, entertains strong hopes that the use of the hand will be restored.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We are compelled to omit the concluding part of the essay of our correspondent "Z." While we thank him for his favors hitherto, we would add our wish that his numbers may be abridged in future, that they may be brought within the limits of one column.

New-York, March 3.

Yesterday afternoon, CADWALLADER D. COLDEN, Esq was sworn into office as mayor of this city, and took the chair of his predecessor, Mr. Radcliff, who surrendered and retired from office with a dignity and grace that could hardly have been anticipated.

The citizens of this metropolis, generally, are pleased with the appointment of Mr. Colden, and the calculation is, that the business of his administration will be ably and impartially conducted. [Gazette

A letter from Cadiz of January 5, mentions, the arrival at Cadiz, of the ships Sterling, and Mohawk, and brig Cartel, all from New-York.—Flour was 11 to 1 50. Pipe staves 90 dollars dull, and large stocks in market. Fruit very scarce and high, keg raisins 6 25; muscatels 2 50 and blooms 2 dollars, owing to the great demand for the north of Europe.

A letter from Lisbon, of the 16th Jan. mentions that bread stuffs had risen in price in that place. [ibid.

IN COUNCIL, FEBRUARY 28, 1818.

Ordered, that the sum of $2 50, improperly charged to and paid by Wm. H. Brown be refunded.

Ordered, that the sum of $2 50, improperly charged to, and paid by Laughlin Masterson, be refunded.

Ordered, that the sum of $8, improperly charged to, and paid by Ambrose Vasse, be refunded.

Ordered, that the auditor issue a warrant in favor of James Campbell, for two hundred dollars, in full compensation as Messenger to Council, and for sundries furnished by him.

Ordered, that the Attorney and Auditor of the corporation examine the accounts of the collector of old balances, and report to next meeting of Council, what balance may be due by him to the Corporation.

The committee to whom were referred the settlement of the accounts of the Corporation for the year ending the 1st March 1818, beg leave to report to council, that they have examined the separate account of the collectors of the first, second, third, and fourth wards for the last year, and the sums which have been paid into the hands of the treasurer.

The collectors of former years have also been before the committee, and their accounts found to be correct. At foot is a statement of balances to be accounted for by several of the Collectors.

They further report that the collector of balances, Wm. A. Harper, presented to the committee an informal account of collections made by him, in which it appears he has received about $2000 in money, and paid into the treasury, in February 1817, the sum of $200. He states that when his account is settled, the balance, after deducting this $200, will be due him for commission of 12½ per cent. agreed to be allowed for collection, and attending to the suits in favor of the corporation on which judgment have been obtained, with a charge of $700 for posting books, and other charges, which the committee, from the views they have of the subject, are of opinion are inadmissible.

The Treasurer's and Auditor's accounts have also been carefully examined and found correctly and handsomely kept.

They further beg leave to hand the accounts of the auditor and treasurer for publication, agreeably to constant usage.

Columbian Insurance Comp'y.

THE Columbian Insurance Company of Alexandria, under their charter by congress, announce to the public that they continue to insure against all manner of and they are also now authorised to make insurance on LIVES.

They submit, for the information of applicants, the fundamental rules they have adopted under the authority of their charter, by which the principles that are to govern in all cases of marine and fire insurances are defined.

Applications for insurances may be made at their office, on Royal-street, (next door to the City Hotel) each day, from 12 to 2 o'clock, in writing; and the applicant is requested to add the name of the endorser he proposes to give on the premium note,

Columbian Insurance Office, Alexandria, March 9, 1818.

FUNDAMENTAL RULES FOR MARINE RISKS.

1. All rules and regulations in use by the Marine Insurance Company of Alexandria, and not contrary to the following, are adopted by this institution.

2. The credits for payment of all premiums exceeding fifty dollars, shall be as follow, by approved notes with one endorser, viz:

To or from—	To & from
2 months	3 months—Ports in the United States, Louisiana excepted.
4 months	6 months—The West Indies, Louisiana, Florida, Spanish Maine North of the Equator.
6 months	8 months—Europe and Africa, European Turkey and the White Sea excepted.
7 months	9 months—Turkey, the Wh. and Black Seas, South America, (east coast) South of the Equator.
12 months	15 months—India and China and beyond the Cape of Good Hope and Cape Horn generally.

3. Insurances on vessels and on commissions are, in all cases, to be made in valued policies only. Those on commissions free from average and salvage.

4. It will be preferable that insurances on freight be likewise valued. But if "on freight" simply, two thirds of the amount of gross freight covered shall be understood to be the insurable interest. If bills of loading or charter parties stipulate no freight on goods, being owner's property, &c. the amount shall be fixed by arbitration, of freights for voyages out and home: one half is to be applied to each voyage, unless otherwise agreed upon.

5. On sums insured upon imaginary or expected profits, the same per centage in case of loss will be paid as would be recoverable on the value or cost of the goods themselves, general average and salvage excepted, to which profits are deemed not liable to contribute.

6. When a risk is offered to this company, on which prior insurances are made, it is requested that the circumstance be mentioned at the time of the application, if the policy applied for is to be a valued one, or if the prior insurances are made on valued policies.

7. Insurable interests of persons residing in the District of Columbia, under open policies on voyages out and home, are to be shown by simply covering the amount of the invoice with half the premium round. Persons residing out of the District have to add, in all cases, to their amount of insurable interest half per cent. commission for effecting insurance, and one and a half per cent. commission to recover losses. The amount of invoices understood to include a commission of two and a half per cent. on shipments from port to port in the United States, and five per cent. to or from foreign countries.

8. All persons having losses or return premiums to claim from this company, are desired to give notice thereof as soon as they are in possession of the requisite information. Should they neglect to do so, they would have to ascribe a delay in the adjustment to themselves, as it is intended to adjust and settle all claims against this company successively as they are notified.

9. This company will abide by all statements of general average made abroad under competent authority, and according to the local laws, if not incompatible with the express terms of their policies. They will refund contributions actually paid abroad by or for the insured as general average, without regard to the valuation of the property insured.

10. When general averages are stated here, goods are to be rated in the accounts of contributary capital at their actual net proceeds; and if that cannot be easily ascertained, at their cost, (according to invoice) with the premium of insurance covered, and ten per cent imaginary profit on the first cost and charges, exclusive of insurance. In all cases of general average or particular damage to be stated here, the insured shall give notice to this company immediately after the arrival of the vessel; and, thereupon, an application shall be mutually made to the mayor for the time being, or, in his absence, to a magistrate, to appoint three suitable and well qualified persons, being first duly sworn to go on board, diligently to view, search and examine, as they may be directed, and to make such report as circumstances may require to the said mayor or magistrate under oath:—and this company will not be bound or liable to pay any general average or particular damage which requires to be stated and settled here, unless the survey shall be conducted as aforesaid, or by some other mutual arrangement.

11. It is stipulated in the policies that this company will allow, in general average, seamen's wages and provisions in cases of capture or detention for adjudication; but they will not be answerable therefor in cases of Embargo.

12. When vessels or goods are insured to a port, into which they are not admissable, this company will continue on the risk to the next convenient open port, which the master in his discretion may choose to go to; but they will not, in such case, accept of an abandonment, nor will they contribute to the expenses of transporting goods by land or water from the port so chosen to that of original destination; nor will they pay a returned premium for shortening the voyage, if the master during the passage should be informed of the occlusion of his "destined" port, and in consequence of such information choose to go to another. Damage suffered by goods will in no case whatever be allowed in general average.

13. The insured shall be entitled to recover from this company a particular average or partial loss, as well as a total loss, on any number of packages properly distinguished by marks and numbers, if agreed upon and specified in the policies, the same as if such number of packages (parts of a whole cargo or invoice insured in one policy) were insured in several policies.

14. When goods, the value of which is ascertained by weight, are damaged, the company will indemnify the insured for the deficiency in weight, which may be occasioned by such damage, by comparing the actual weight of the sound goods with that of the damaged, and with the invoice or valuation in the policy.

15. All liquids in casks or otherwise, are by a clause in the policy declared free from average unless general or the ship be stranded—In a case of partial loss on liquids occurring under this stipulation, ten per cent ordinary leakage shall be always deducted.

16. A vessel shall be deemed "stranded" when she grounds and strikes on some bank, shore or rock, and can either not be got off at all, or not without extraneous help and unlading or throwing overboard her cargo or a part of it—The exertions of the ship's crew are not extraneous help.

17. When insurances are made against "sea risk only," and a vessel, which is so insured by this company, is taken or captured, the risk of the insurer ceases at the moment the vessel is taken; but if she is released or liberated, the risk of the insurer recommences as soon as she reached that point or one nearest to it, in good and proper condition, in the due course for her destined port, from whence she was diverted by the capture.

18 The president and directors of this company for the time being, shall have power to alter, amend, or abolish these rules, or any of them, and from time to time to add others to them, giving suitable notice thereof.

FUNDAMENTAL RULES FOR RISK AGAINST FIRE.

1. Persons desirous to make insurance on buildings are to state in writing the following particulars, viz.: Of what materials the walls and roofs of each building are constructed, as well as the construction of the buildings contiguous thereto—whether the same are occupied as private dwellings or how otherwise—where situated—also the name or names of the present occupiers.

Each building must be separately valued, and a specified sum insured thereon; and in like manner a separate sum insured on the property contained therein.

All manufactories which contain furnaces, kilns, stoves, ovens, or use fire heat, are chargeable at additional rates.

In the insurance of goods, wares and merchandize, the building or place in which the same are deposited, is to be described, also whether such goods are of the kinds denominated hazardous, and whether any manufactory is carried on in the premises. And if any person or persons shall insure his or their buildings or goods, and shall cause the same to be described in the policy otherwise than as they really are, so as the same be charged at a lower premium than would otherwise be demanded, such insurance shall be of no force.

2. Goods held in trust or on commission, are to be insured as such, otherwise the policy will not extend to cover such property.

3. No loss or damge to be paid on fire happening by any invasion, foreign enemy, civil commotion, riot or any military or usurped power whatever—nor for damage done by fire occasioned by earthquakes and hurricanes—but this company will make good losses on property burnt by lightning.

4. Books of accounts, written securities, bills, bonds, and ready money cannot be insured.

5. Jewels, plate, medals, or other curiosities, paintings and sculptures, are not included in any insurance, unless such articles are specified in the policy.

6 Persons insuring property at this office, must give notice of any other insurance made elsewhere, for their behalf

5. Jewels, plate, medals, or other curiosities, paintings and sculptures, are not included in any insurance, unless such articles are specified in the policy.

6 Persons insuring property at this office, must give notice of any other insurance made elsewhere, for their behalf on the same, and cause such insurance to be endorsed on their policies—and, unless such notice is given, the insured will not be entitled to recover in case of loss.

7. Every policy of insurance issued by this company, shall be signed by the President and attested by the Secretary; and the person for whose interest the insurance is made, must be declared and named therein; nor can any policy or interest therein be assigned, but by consent of the company expressed by endorsement thereon.

8. No insurance will be considered as made or binding, until the premium be actually paid.

9. All persons assured by this company, sustaining any loss or damage by fire, are forthwith to give notice to the company, and as soon as possible thereafter deliver in as particular an account of their loss or damage, signed with their own hands, as the nature of the case will admit of, and make proof of the same by their oath or affirmation, and by their books of accounts or other proper vouchers, as shall be reasonably required, and shall procure a certificate under the hand of a magistrate or a sworn notary, of the town or county, in which the fire happened, not concerned in such loss directly or indirectly, importing that they are acquainted with the character and circumstances of the person or persons insured, and do know, or verily believe, that he, she, or they, really, and by misfortune, without any kind of fraud or evil practice, have sustained by such fire loss or damage, to the amount therein mentioned—and until such affidavit and certificate are produced, the loss claimed shall not be payable; also, if there appears any fraud, the claimant shall forfeit his claim to restitution or payment, by virtue of his policy.

10. In case any difference shall arise between the assured and the company, touching any loss or damage, such difference may be referred to two persons, one to be chosen by the assured out of three persons to be named by the President of said company, and the other by the President out of three persons named by the assured, whose award in writing shall be conclusive and binding on both parties. And when any loss or damage shall have been duly proved, the insured shall receive satisfaction to the full amount thereof without any allowance of any discount, fees or other reduction whatever.

11 Persons choosing to insure for seven years, will be charged for six years only—and for a less number than seven, will be allowed a reasonable discount.

12. The President and directors of this company, for the time being, shall have power to alter, amend, or abolish those rules, or any of them, and from time to time to add others to them, giving suitable public notice thereof.

FUNDAMENTAL RULES FOR FIRE RISKS.

Rates of annual Premium to be paid for Insurance, viz.

No. 1. Hazards of the first class—25 to 35 cents per annum per $100, viz. brick or stone buildings, covered with tile, slate, or metal, furniture or merchandize, not hazardous, contained in such buildings.

No. 2 Hazards of the second class—37½ to 50 cents per annum per $100; viz buildings, having the four walls of brick or stone, and covered with boards and shingles, furniture or merchandize, not hazardous contained in such buildings.—Hazardous goods, viz. Hemp, flax, oil, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, spirits-turpentine, aqua-fortis, salt petre, tallow, distilled spirits, or other hazardous goods in buildings of 1st class.

No. 3. Hazards of the third class—50 to 100 cents per annum per $100—viz. buildings constructed partly with brick or stone and partly with wood, or having either of the four walls of frame work filled in with brick. Furniture or merchandize, not hazardous, contained in such buildings. Hazardous goods enumerated in No. 2 or other hazardous goods in buildings of 2d class.

No. 4. Hazards of the fourth class—50 to 150 cents per annum per $100—viz. Timber or slight buildings covered with shingles or boards. Furniture or merchandize, not hazardous, contained in such buildings. Hazardous goods enumerated in No. 2. or other hazardous goods in buildings of 3d class.

For sums not exceeding $10,000 on one risque—ships in port and their cargoes, ships building or repairing, also craft with goods on board, may be insured against fire. Larger sums may be insured by special agreement with the board as far as $15,000.—All buildings in contiguity to hazardous buildings, or in other respects disadvantageously situate, will be charged an extra premium.

The rules may also in some cases be proportionately moderated upon timber buildings in the country, or when standing singly and detached, or attended with circumstances of peculiar security.

Soap boilers, tallow chandlers, brewers, malsters, bakers, ropemakers, sugar refiners, distillers, chemists, varnish makers, paper makers, stable keepers, tavern keepers, china, glass or earthen ware sellers, oil and color men, printers, coopers, carpenters, cabinet makers, coach makers, boat builders, ship chandlers or apothecaries, or any manufactory which requires fire heat, or buildings used for theatrical or other public exhibitions; are deemed extra hazardous and the rate upon such risks will be proportionably increased.

Valuable Work.

MR JESSE E. WEEMS is engaged in procuring subscribers for the celebrated and truly evangelical Sermons of the Rev. Samuel Davies, late President of Princeton College, New Jersey. His plan and price of these volumes are detailed below.

Alexandria, 3d March, 1818.

It is with pleasure I recommend Mr. Davies' Sermons, now re publishing by the Rev. M. L. Weems—I know no Sermons which have been read with more interest and advantage. They display Ciceronean Eloquence and Christian Piety. They are a feast on which many have been refreshed.
JAMES MUIR, D. D.

Being called upon by Mr. Weems to give my opinion of Mr. Davies' Sermons, I feel free to recommend them, (with some reserve on his peculiar views of ecclesiastical polity) as calculated to promote the interests of religion and piety.
WM. H WILMER.
Alexandria, March 5, 1818.

I concur in the above recommendation of Davies' Sermons.
OLIVER NORRIS.

These SERMONS, sixty three in number, printed in 5 neat duodecimo volumes on good plain paper, type and binding, will be delivered to subscribers for five dollars, not to be paid until delivered.

Sully for Sale.

THIS Estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaister of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation, and those now untilled are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed: the outhouses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.

FRANCIS LIGHTFOOT LEE.

CHARLES COUNTY COURT, August Term, 1817

ON application to Charles County Court, by petition in writing of Samuel C. S. Jack, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Samuel C. S. Jack has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said Samuel C. S. Jack is in actual confinement for debt, and the said Samuel C. S. Jack having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, and answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said Samuel C. S. Jack be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the district of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday of March next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court at Charlestown in said county, on the said third Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause why the said Samuel C. S. Jack should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state as prayed. Given under my hand this 12th day of January 1819.

Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received, direct from the proprietors, the following valuable MEDICINES, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronized by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a family medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great, that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a stereotype label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Bilious Pills," and on the end of the label the words, "Samuel Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's celebrated Eye Water,

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources.—Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment,

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

Dr. Rawson's Anti-Bilious and Stomachic Bitters,

For weakly and infirm constitutions. Price 37½ cents a box.

Hinckley's Infallible Remedy for the Piles,

A most valuable medicine. Price 50 cents a box.

Thompson's Aromatic Tooth Paste,

For whitening and preserving the teeth—it may be used with the greatest safety. Price 50 cents a box.

Specific Drops for the Tooth Ache,

Which, in almost every case, gives instant relief in that distressing complaint. Price 37½ cents a bottle.

Cooley's Vegetable Elixir, for Coughs, Asthmas, Consumptions, &c.

A very valuable medicine in those complaints. Price 50 cents a bottle.

For sale, in Alexandria, by Dr. Rich'd. H. Little; in Washington City, by Dr. David Ott; in Georgetown, by Dr. John Ott, Otho M. Linthum & Co. and Nathaniel Jewett.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE'S MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits
Loss of appetite	Indigestion
Impurity of blood	Melancholy
Hysteric affection	Gout in the stomach
Inward weaknesses and debility	Pains in the limbs
	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.
